It is not fair the President is choosing to protect big businesses from ObamaCare, but not hardworking individuals and families.

HOUSE REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE

This week House Republicans will act to protect all Americans from the unworkable mandates of the President's health care law by voting to delay both the individual and employer mandates.

Our work to dismantle ObamaCare is part of our ongoing fight for solutions to spur economic growth, create new jobs, and provide a more secure future for all Americans.

The White House's last Obamacare statement said 'delay' 45 times.

It's time for #PermanentDelay

Yesterday on NBC's Meet the Press, Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) proclaimed that, "Obamacare has been wonderful for America."

Let's take a look at some of the headlines from the past week that highlight just how 'wonderful' it has been.

Obamacare Mandate Delay: Employers Keep Job Cuts
"For many workers, the one-year delay in ObamaCare's employer mandate was too little, too late."

"With time running out, U.S. officials are struggling to cope with the task of launching the new online health insurance exchanges at the heart of President Barack Obama's signature health reforms by an October 1 deadline."

Obamacare Delay Increases Costs and Complications

"The Obama Administration's recent announcement that the Affordable Care Act's (ACA) employer mandate will kick in a year late could ripple beyond the brief extension, increasing costs and complicating implementation of other vital parts of the law."

"Delaying the Obamacare employer mandate has simply put off rules business had already started adjusting to."

POLITICO

Obamacare's missing mandate

"The massive coast-to-coast campaign to get people to sign up for Obamacare is light on mentions of one central element: the widely-disliked individual mandate."
